West Coast On Alert After Dutch Harbor Raids

ALASKAN POST
VISITED TWICE
BY JAP PLANES

Some Fires Started on Trip
No Bombs Dropped
on Second Call.

By The Associated Press
ANCHORAGE, June 4—Two Japanese raiders on North American coast at Dutch Harbor, Alaska, visited the town of Unalakleet, Alaska, and put defenses from an island to Panama against further attacks.

Official reports of these attacks on North America called to indicate whether the more hit-and-run blows were in the opening phase of an organized assault on the Alaskan coast or whether the Japanese were stepping stone to the United States.

The raid described the situation at Dutch Harbor as quiet. The Japanese reported today that the raid was over the base yesterday. The Japanese were engaged only in the air.

A communiqué declared damage at the base was not extensive and fires were quickly extinguished after the initial raid yesterday morning.

The source of the attack, a report has not been definitely confirmed, the communiqué said they are believed to have been carrier-based.

At 10 p. m. Dimond, Alaskan defense commander, gave this report: "We may have a strike on our hands to keep that area."

Planes Over First
The attack was by four Japanese bombers and about 10 fighters. A m. Alaska time (7:30 a. m. local time) yesterday, about 15 minutes.

A few warehouses were set on fire, but no serious damage was done to the navy installation. The navy announced that it had few casualties.

The second raid was made at 10:30 p. m. (8 p. m. local time), six hours after the first attack, the navy said. Details of this raid were not immediately available.

Defense leaders at Seattle said the public to be reassured and instructions to pay attention to a possible blackout. The Los Angeles defense council issued an emergency alert, calling for cooperation and readiness for action.

Governor Declares Intent To Help Win War and Maintain Local Government.

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., June 25—Republican Governor Bricker formally launched his third term candidacy today by filing his declaration of candidacy petitions with the secretary of state.

"I believe I can do more, both for the winning of the war and the preservation of our system of self-government, in the office which I now occupy than any other place. I am therefore declaring my candidacy for reelection as governor of Ohio," the executive said in a formal statement accompanying the filing of his petitions.

The executive declared his administration has had two definite purposes in the war program, giving all possible aid to the federal government and maintaining local government in orderly condition.

In a short review of his four-year stewardship, the governor said he had found the state burdened with debt when he assumed office in 1939, but that now all debts have been paid or there is money in the treasury to pay them, and still have a net surplus of more than $13,000,000.

The governor's petitions contained 10,000 signatures from all 88 counties. He said he still had 100,000 additional signatures which he did not intend to file. Only 1,000 signatures are necessary to qualify a candidate for the primary.

Walter F. Heer, chairman of the Franklin County Democratic executive committee, acknowledged today that he had consented to sign petitions seeking to qualify him for the Democratic gubernatorial primary.

For a long time I have told Democratic leaders in this state that I am not interested in being a candidate for governor," Heer said. "But they are insisting that I enter the race and have asked me to sign a number of petitions which they are going to circulate."

By The Associated Press
BERLIN (FROM GERMAN BROADCASTS), June 4—Reinhard Heydrich, 36, Reichsprotektor for Bohemia and Moravia, died in Prague this morning of wounds suffered in an attempt on his life May 27. It was announced officially today.

(The assassination is expected to bring about the shooting of hundreds of hostages in addition to the 163 already slain in swift reprisals, Czech circles in London asserted.)

(London sources declared Heydrich recently was appointed gestapo chief for occupied Europe and it was pointed out ironically that the "Butcher of Moravia" died in virtually the same manner as hundreds of hostages he had ordered shot in France, Holland, Belgium, Norway, Poland and other countries during his hated career.)

Used Czech Rifles
(A Czech source in London said automatic rifles used by two men to shoot Heydrich were from the Ordinance of the disbanded Czech army. The Czech government appealed by radio to the Czechs to stand firm against the gestapo blocs and not disclose those connected with the shooting.)

(Forty-six more Czechs were reported executed by the Germans yesterday in bloody reprisals for the attack on Heydrich, bringing to 163 the total number who have died before Nazi firing squads in the protectorate. Twenty-nine women were included in the total.)

(London Czech sources predicted today that hundreds of an estimated 5,000 hostages rounded up would be executed by the gestapo in addition to those already shot.)

The Berlin radio announced that Heydrich was wounded at 1 p. m. May 27 on the Berlin-Prague highway within the limits of greater Prague.

A reward of 10,000,000 crowns ($235,000 at the last quoted rate of exchange in May, 1941) was immediately offered for his arrest and martial law was proclaimed in Prague.

Blow To Hitler
(Quoting dispatch from Stockholm, Tass, official Soviet news agency, said last Monday that the Heydrich case had come as a thunderbolt to Hitler's circle of leaders and had touched off arrests in the German capital itself.)

NAZI SEAPORT
OF BREMEN HIT
IN RAF RAID

Commandos Also Make Sudden Night Attack on German Post in France.

By The Associated Press
LONDON, June 4—British bombers blasted Bremen, Germany's second seaport, and British commandos fruitfully scouted the Boulogne-Le Touquet area of Adolf Hitler's French coastal defenses overnight, government agencies announced today.

The Bremen raid, 94th of the war, was linked with an attack on the Dieppe docks and the air ministry announced that 10 bombers and two fighters were missing from the night operations.

A strong RAF force flew through moonlit skies to strike at Bremen's shipbuilding and submarine yards, docks, railways, steel works, oil refining installations and an aircraft factory in a follow-up to the mass raids upon Cologne and Essen. Only Hamburg ranks ahead of Bremen as a German maritime center.

Black-faced commandos, escorted by navy warships and protected in their withdrawal by RAF fighters, stabbed across Dover strait after midnight on a reconnaissance raid officially declared to have produced "valuable information."

Second Commando Raid
It was the second commando thrust against the Boulogne-Le Touquet area, scouted before on April 22. Boulogne lies 25 miles south of Dover and Le Touquet is 15 miles farther south. Between them is a coast of dunes and marshes.

The force was described as a small contingent, casualties were officially declared to have been slight.

(The German high command said that its forces had repulsed an attempted British landing on the occupied French coast and that German troops had captured "some prisoners and arms.")

The Boulogne-Le Touquet area, 25 miles from England's Dover coast, is viewed by military experts as one of several areas suitable as bridgeheads for an invading allied army.

It is a doorman in the valleys of the French rivers Seine and Somme through which English forces have struck at Paris in the past.

Entries Pour In for Marion
Allied Victory Flag Parade

Ordinance Plant Companies and Factories Among Those Promising Colorful Floats for June 14.

Marion's Allied Victory parade on Flag Day, June 14, promises to bring out the biggest display of floats the city has seen in 20 years according to early responses to the plans announced yesterday by Marion businessmen in cooperation with the Marion County War Savings staff.

The Marion Ordinance Plant companies, the Osgood Co., the Marion-Reserve Power Co., and the Fairfield Engineering Co., were among the first to signify their intentions of entering floats. Robert T. Mason, general chairman in charge of arrangements reported.

The companies engaged in building the Ordinance Plant already have started designing and building their entries.

A letter came today from Air Marshal W. A. Bishop of Ottawa, Ontario, Canada, expressing deep regret that an invitation could not be accepted to send a Royal Canadian Air Force band and flying cadets to Marion for the occasion. The Air Force sent a band and a large corps of cadets to a recent Victory event at Kent, O. Air Marshal Bishop extended best wishes for the success of Marion's parade. The great demand for the services of the Air Force band and cadets for similar patriotic affairs throughout the United States and Canada made it impossible to fill the date set for the Marion parade.

For several years he suffered from asthma and the first of the week an attack came which brought on a weakened heart condition. He was able to go to the Marion parade.

There will be no speeches or long program at the end of the parade, Mr. Marion announced. The parade will form on West Center street and at 4 p. m. will march east to Main street and south on Main to Delaware avenue and on to the Harding memorial.

Preliminary plans are to have a mass pledge of allegiance and mass singing of the national anthem, after which the crowd will be dismissed.

CITY SIGNS FOR 100
ADDITIONAL METERS

To Be Handled at First on Rental Basis.

A contract to rent 100 new parking meters, more or less, was signed yesterday by Safety Service Director C. C. Caldwell. The contract was made with the Dual Parking Meter Co. of Oklahoma City, Okla., the same company that was in charge of the installation of the first meters in Marion. The contract set the fee for renting at $2.50 a month for each meter. The contract included a provision which gives the city the right to purchase the meters after 12 months. It desired.

Only other bid submitted was made by the Karpark Automatic Parking Meter Corp. of Washington, D. C. This bid was rejected because the rates asked were higher, Mr. Caldwell said.

The meters are of the same type that are now in use in the city. Just when and where the meters will be installed is up to city council. Action on the matter by council is expected in the near future.

6,000 Ton Armed Vessel Goes
Down; War Mounts on East Coast of China.

By The Associated Press
Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters announced today that an allied submarine had sunk a 6,000-ton armed transport with the probable loss of 12,000 Japanese troops in the waters of the southwest Pacific, while four Japanese midget submarines were listed as sunk in the abortive raid on Sydney harbor last Sunday.

Previously, only three of the tiny two-man Japanese underwater raiders had been reported sent to the bottom.

In addition to the Japanese troopship, United Nations headquarters said an allied submarine sank two heavily laden Japanese supply ships and damaged a third. A communiqué also reported that two Japanese submarines operating close off the east coast of Australia attacked three allied cargo ships and sank one of them, but indicated that the other two escaped undamaged.

China War Rages
Amid these threats at Australia's shipping, suggesting an attempted blockade of the down-under continent, the war on China's east coast raged on with mounting fury.

A Tokyo broadcast asserted that Japanese forces were forcing ahead in three Chinese provinces—Chiang Kai-shek's Kwangtung and Kiangsi—and that Japanese troops had broken through the outer defenses of Chuchien, Key railway in western Chinese province.

A Japanese army spokesman said Japan's opening of a new front in Kiangsi province "serves as a final warning" to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's Chinese armies to give up their "meaningless resistance or accept the alternative of annihilation."

The Chinese, who have repeatedly scoffed at such overtures through five bloody years of war with Japan, said 30,000 Japanese troops were being thrown into the Kiangsi offensive in a drive to seize the Kiangsi-Chiang railway which leads into the heart of China.

Stillwell in Chungking
High-lighting the gravity of China's peril, two top-ranking American officers in the far Pacific arrived in Chungking by plane for conferences with Generalissimo Chiang. They are Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell, commander of Chinese forces in the last battle of Burma, and Maj. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton, commander of U. S. army air forces in India.

Chinese military dispatches reported that the Chinese armies, harassed on a dozen fronts, were putting up a terrific fight and inflicting heavy casualties on the invaders.

On the Burma-China front in the Far Southwest, the Chinese said 2,000 Japanese had been killed and wounded in two weeks of fighting on the outskirts of Lungling and Tengchong, Japanese-occupied towns just west of the upper Salween river.

On the China East coast, dispatches said the Chinese were beating back Japanese spearheads attempting to drive north along the Canton-Hankow railway in Kwangtung province.

Meanwhile, the British war office disclosed new evidence that Japan may have been planning to seize the strategic island of Madagascar, off the coast of southeast Africa, now partly occupied by British troops.

The war office said two Japanese naval officers had been shot by a British patrol Monday at a village north of the British-held Diego Suarez naval base.

"When called upon to surrender, they opened fire on the British patrol and were shot," the war office announced.

NEW SHIP, ARMY BILL TO BOOST WAR COST

Appropriations To Go Above
200 Billion Mark.

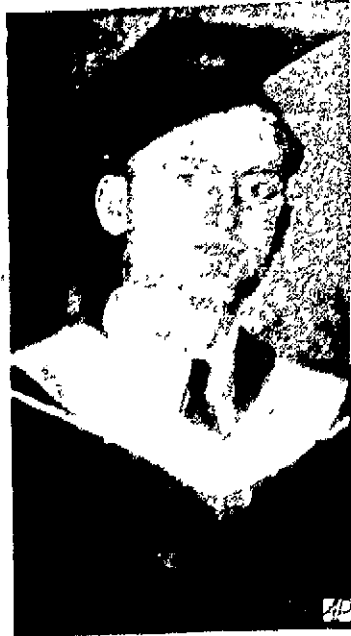

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, June 4—A new, gigantic ship-building program and another forthcoming supply bill for an army of 4,500,000 men probably will push this nation's war and defense appropriations for the past three years beyond the $200,000,000,000 mark within a month.

The total allotments already amounted to $161,000,000,000 when the house yesterday voted $2,797,409,740 for the navy, coast guard and marine corps.

Even as that bill was hurried over to the senate for early action, Rep. Vinson (D-Ga.), chairman of the house naval committee, submitted a new $2,300,000,000 measure designed practically to double the size of the fleet by building more than 500 fighting ships.

Meanwhile, congress awaited arrival of the 1943 army supply bill in anticipation it would reach the appropriations committee within ten days. Congressmen in close touch with the war department have estimated that it would bundle up army needs amounting to close to $43,000,000,000, a new peak for an appropriation bill.

Ohio To Expedite War Manpower Inventory

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., June 4—Ohio's local selection service boards will expedite the state inventory of war production manpower with the mailing this month of occupational questionnaires to men over military age.

Col. C. W. Goble, state draft director, said today: "Men between 45 and 65 years old, who registered in April, will receive the latest questionnaire. 'The nation will have pressing need by late autumn,' Goble added, 'for around 10,500,000 additional war workers. It is from the men beyond military age that the war manpower commission expects to obtain most of the male recruits for this work.'

OHIO GRAIN STORAGE SUBJECT OF STUDY

Conference To Be Held in Columbus Saturday.

By The Associated Press
COLUMBUS, O., June 4—James E. Wells, special assistant to the administrator of the agricultural marketing administration, will confer here Saturday with grain elevator operators and farmers concerning the storage and marketing of Ohio's 1942 wheat crop.

Elmer F. Kruse, Ohio AAA chairman, said conferees would discuss a program to prevent congestion in summer movement of wheat.

He estimated the state's harvest at about 40,000,000 bushels. Surveys indicate an average storage space for about 10,000,000 bushels. Surplus wheat from 1940 and 1941 occupies storage space which normally would be available for the new crop, Kruse said.

Pre-fabricated wooden storage bins probably will be offered for sale to farmers by county AAA committees, the state chairman added. The commodity credit corp. he said, is negotiating for the purchase of enough pre-fabricated bins to store approximately 100,000,000 bushels of grain.

Under present plans, the bins will vary in capacity from 1,000 to 2,500 bushels.

The AAA is to ship 500 steel storage bins into Ohio for the storage of 20-cement-bagged grain, representing a total capacity of 1,250,000 bushels of wheat.

Miss Emma J. Byrns, superintendent, has extended an invitation to the general public to attend all the commencement exercises.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The Aerial Camera for use on Scout and Observation and Reconnaissance planes is essential to both the Army and Navy air forces in planning battle formations and in obtaining information on enemy fortifications and movements. They look something like a cannon, and cost about $3,400 apiece.

The aerial cameraman can plot wide territories in bold relief so that Army or Navy Intelligence can make accurate measurements of enemy territory. We need many of these cameras so necessary to the air arms of the Army and Navy. You can help buy them with your purchases of War Bonds. Invest at least ten percent of your income every pay day, and help your country to over its War Bond Quota.

Airgraph Available for American Soldiers
 By The Associated Press
 LONDON, June 4.—United States army headquarters announced today that American troops in the British Isles now will be able to send airgraph letters to relatives and friends at home.

The system is similar to that used by British troops in India and the Middle East. The letters are written on specially prepared blanks and photographed by a micro-filming process. The films are taken by bomber to Washington, enlarged by the war department and forwarded to the addressees.

The use of such letters is not mandatory, but it would save hundreds of tons of air mail.

Stillwell and Chiang Confer in Chungking
 By The Associated Press
 CHUNGKING, June 4.—Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stillwell, American commander of Chinese forces which fought the Japanese in Burma, and Major Gen. Lewis H. Brereton, commander of United States army air forces in India, arrived by plane today for conferences with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

Stillwell, the Chinese generalissimo's chief of staff, led the Fifth and Sixth Chinese armies in their defense of the east flank of the Burma front.

He escaped into India in a hazardous overland journey when his headquarters was cut off by the Japanese, and declared bluntly that "we took a hell of a beating."

Brereton is in charge of the United States bomber forces which pounded the Japanese during the last weeks of their Burma campaign and now are battering at the bases from which the invaders menace India.

SUPPORTERS FIGHT TO PRESERVE CCC Until War Ends.
 Want to Keep Framework
 By The Associated Press
 WASHINGTON, June 4.—Supporters of the depression-born civilian conservation corps, now threatened with dissolution, battled in the house today to preserve at least the organization's framework until the war is over.

The issue developed rapidly after the house appropriations committee, by a vote of 15 to 12, asked congress yesterday to dissolve the nine-year-old organization which has had on its rolls, at one time or another, 3,000,000 persons, and which has spent during that time $2,800,000,000.

The test will come on the question of restoring a committee-eliminated allotment of $75,618,000 to provide for 350 camps for labor duty at military camps and for forest fire fighting. That amount was $171,422,000 less than the 1942 allotment.

The committee action on striking the CCC allotment from the billion dollar bill for the department of labor, social security board and related agencies came on a motion by Rep. Engel (D-Mich.) who declared that its effect would be "to cut off the CCC at the end of this month."

Some members suggested the CCC be taken over and administered by the army for the war's duration, and then returned to peace-time reconstruction work.

HE'S OHIO RATIONING CHIEF

Ohio's war-time rationing program now is being handled by Harry T. Beckmann, retired Van Wert, O., nurseryman, who here looks over some sugar rationing data with his secretary, Mrs. Pat Ritzgers, at state rationing headquarters, Columbus.

O. Beckmann was named Ohio administrator at $8,000 a year by Price Administrator Leon Henderson, although Beckmann offered to serve without pay. Beckmann already has won commendation for his work from Henderson.

Himmler was said in the Tass dispatch to have notified Hitler of the attack in an urgent telephone call.

"The bloodiest of all the bloody Nazis," that was the hated sobriquet applied to Reinhard Heydrich, the Gestapo's second in command, by Europe's oppressed millions.

For his ruthless application of repressive measures—usually the firing squad or the hangman's noose—against those who dared to challenge their Nazi conquerors, the hard-bitten, 38-year-old Heydrich also became known by the equally dubious title of "der haken," or hanger.

An early convert to Nazism, Heydrich was little known to the world generally until the fall of 1941 when Hitler sent him to Prague to quell a rising tide of Czech unrest. There he succeeded in the dastardly deed of murdering the Czech leader, Dr. Benes.

British fliers found weather favorable and cast their explosive loads upon Bremen by the light of flares, the air ministry said.

108 Attend War Plan Women's Opening Party

One hundred and eight women from offices connected with the construction and operation of the Ho-Soto Ordnance Plant attended a "ret-acquainted" dance last night at Hotel Hamilton. Later they were joined by men from the offices for an evening of dancing. It was the first of a series of social affairs the women will have during the summer.

The women were from the various war department offices and the offices of Holabird & Root, architect-engineering firm, Hunkin-Conkey Construction Co., and U. S. Rubber Co.

Dinner was served in the ballroom at tables decorated with red, white and blue candles and vases of red and white peonies. Each place was marked with a corsage of red roses and lavender tied with red, white and blue ribbon, and a white ribbon badge lettered in red with the name and company affiliation of the women.

The corsages were gifts of J. Z. Burgee, resident partner of Holabird & Root, and the badge was furnished by B. J. Barnhart, supervising engineer for the Hunkin-Conkey Co. Proceeds of the dance were turned over to the U. S. Rubber Co. for the benefit of the U. S. Rubber Co. fund.

Miss Marguerite Sertelle of the Hunkin-Conkey Co., general chairman of arrangements, presided as mistress of ceremonies. From 8:45 to 9 there was a broadcast from the ballroom, carried by Station WTRN, of piano selections by James J. Peterson of Holabird & Root. The program while the group was at the tables included vocal selections by Frank Conroy of the Hunkin-Conkey Co., a former soloist with the Metropolitan Opera Co., accompanied at the piano by Miss Esther Von Bockern of the war department, a concert pianist.

Miss Von Bockern later played several selections.

At 10:30 o'clock the men from the offices joined the women and there was dancing until after midnight to music by the Hunkin-Conkey orchestra, directed by Walter Reibel.

In the receiving line preceding the dinner hour were Miss Sertelle, Mrs. Marilyn Mayden of Holabird & Root; Miss Grace Bowen of the area engineer's office; Miss Thelma Griffith of the ordnance office; Miss Jean Johnson of the land acquisition office, and Miss Margaret Lewis of the U. S. Rubber Co. In charge of table arrangements were Mrs. Rerky Campbell of Hunkin-Conkey.

New factories for production are being built in three more areas, very high grade products are turned.

Pre-Primary Campaign Quiet in County with Deadline Near

Time for Candidates To Qualify Expires June 12; Only Three County Posts To Be Filled.

One of the quietest statewide political campaigns in history is being written into election records as the filing deadline for the Aug. 11 primaries draws near. Candidates must declare their intentions by June 12, which is a week from tomorrow, to have their names placed on the primary ballots.

Ohioans this year will vote on a full slate of candidates for state offices and a comparatively short list of county offices. The county ticket will be small because of the lengthened terms for various offices that have become effective in recent years. In Marion county, only an auditor, county representative and a county commissioner will be named. Officials whose terms are expiring are County Representative Earl E. Thomas, County Commissioner Urban F. Zachman and County Auditor Harry V. Mounts, all Republicans. All have announced they will again be candidates and one of them, Mr. Thomas, has already filed his declaration.

District Contests
Marion is interested in three district contests. Heading the list is the congressional race in which for candidates have already announced. They are Congressman F. C. Smith of Marion, seeking re-election on the Republican ticket, and three Democrats, Brooks Fletcher and Dr. C. J. Altman of Marion and Pte. John T. Stenson of Kenton.

Other district contests are for Third district court of appeals and the state senate. There has been little activity in connection with these offices, although some candidates have announced their intentions to run.

Club Meetings Held
Clubs of both of the major political parties have held regular meetings and have planned a series of summer activities to heighten interest in the forthcoming campaigns, but there has been little activity among the candidates themselves. Only one gubernatorial candidate has visited Marion so far.

Voters this year will elect precinct and district party committee officials. These will be elected in the primary, not in the fall election. Each precinct will elect a Republican and Democratic committeeman or committeewoman, and the eighth district will elect Republican and Democratic committeemen and committeewomen to serve on the state central committees of their respective party organizations.

New Voters Prospects
Although Marion's population is being swelled daily by the ranks of Scioto Ordnance Plant workers, no sizeable increase in the turnout of voters is expected. For one thing, newcomers, to qualify for ballots, (1) if married, must have his family in residence here with him, (2) must have resided in the county for 30 days and (3) must have lived within the state for a year. These restrictions will oblige many of the workers to cast ballots at their former homes instead of here. In addition, all who can meet these requirements must go to the county board of elections and register by July 12 to qualify for an August primary ballot, provided they live in the city. Those living outside the city needn't register because registration records are kept only for persons living in the city. Experience elsewhere has shown that many newcomers aren't sufficiently interested in political affairs to register far enough ahead of an election to entitle them to vote.

Some Possible Allied Quick Punch Fronts

Wide World Features
Does Allied strategy call for the opening of a second front this summer, and if so, where? Observers say any one of three Axis-controlled points might be selected as the spot to land a punch.

If the attack were launched in Norway, reinforcements could come from Iceland, North Ireland or England—all jammed now with troops and fighting equipment. If the attack stabbed at West Africa then England, Ireland and the United States itself would become the supply bases.

An attack on France could be supported by troops and material now piled up across the channel in Britain.

BRITISH TAKE DESERT POST

Axis Troops Reported Blasted from Stronghold in North African Battle.

By The Associated Press
CAIRO, Egypt, June 4.—British imperial armored forces were reported today to have routed Axis soldiers from a desert stronghold in a fierce engagement while their First French armored division fought off a counter-attack by Field Marshal Erwin Rommel to seize the key position of Bir Hachem.

A Middle East command communiqué said British forces, attacking at the last light of June 2, and the enemy out of Tobruk and 10 miles west of Knightsbridge.

The enemy is known to have lost at least 14 tanks in the engagement, the communiqué declared.

There are British Indian troops at Bir Hachem, but British forces said the main force consists of three French metropolitan troops, plus a battalion of the French Foreign Legion which now is about 65 per cent French.

Repulse Tank Units
A communiqué said British forces holding the left flank of the so-called Axis Bir Hachem line repulsed an assault by German and Italian mechanized units, which were then attacked in the rear by moving imperial forces yesterday.

A large number of Stukas (div bombers) also attacked Bir Hachem and were successfully engaged by our air forces," the bulletin added.

The communiqué made no reference to the situation developing north of Bir Hachem, where Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's armored columns previously had been reported attempting to widen a nine-mile breach in the British line through which the Axis leader was feeding supplies to his hard-pressed forces at Tobruk.

The Germans were reported to be making furious tank assaults on both walls of the narrow corridor and it appeared that Rommel had thrown the full weight of his mechanized equipment into an effort to smash the British line.

Guns, Planes Blast Axis
The British concentrated a heavy artillery bombardment on the corridor from north and south, and RAF planes blasted Axis forces moving into the breach.

The southern wall of the gap in the British lines was reported yesterday to be about 12 miles north of Bir Hachem. A German armored column swept around here last week.

Part of this column still is engaged in the vicinity of Knightsbridge-desert trail junction 15 miles southwest of Tobruk.

In an effort to smash this headhead, the British were bringing up fresh troops, heavy artillery, anti-tank guns and tanks.

The thunder of the battle, the most intense in more than a year and one-half of desert fighting, could be heard for many miles.

ALASKA

of soldiers and sailors in the Panama Canal Zone. The alert status there was intensified.

Experts said the Japanese fighters in the first raid must have come from a carrier, but there was a possibility that the bombers came from a land base.

Dutch Harbor is about 1,800 miles from the northernmost of the Kurile Islands, which stretch northward from Japan proper.

Unalaska Island, on which Dutch Harbor is situated, is nearly 1,000 miles from the westernmost of the Aleutians, which in turn is some 700 miles from the nearest of the Japanese Kuriles.

Pending any official word to the contrary, Washington was inclined to regard the raids as either token reprisals for the recent American bombing of Japan or as threats to test American defenses.

But with the southwestern Pacific battle relatively quiet and the battle of Burma ended, officials familiar with the northern Pacific pointed out that the Japanese have chosen a moment for the Alaska attack which could mean a shift in the direction of the war.

Good Flying Weather
If the Japanese intend an attempt to establish themselves in the Aleutians either for a major campaign against the American continent or as a defense against United Nations attacks from the north, they have a least another month of good flying weather.

In striking at Dutch Harbor, the Japanese may have thought to find a weak spot, some observers pointed out.

Work on naval installations there, said to include an air and a submarine base has been in progress only since the fall of 1940. Since 1922 the Japanese had insisted that the Aleutians not be militarized.

Yet during those years the Japanese themselves have pushed their fishing fleets into Aleutian waters despite American protests and were believed to have marked off prospective bases and landing sites in the volcanic, rocky islands. At the same time Tokyo kept foreign news from the Kuriles, which were thought to shelter substantial naval and air stations.

Recent visitors to Dutch Harbor have described American forces there as expecting air raids with the coming of good weather.

Near Admiral C. S. Freeman, commander of the 13th naval district, said at Seattle after the first raid yesterday that "this attack was not a surprise and the station was prepared to meet it."

Canada Blacks Out West Coast Radio
VICTORIA, B. C., June 4.—(Canadian Press)—A radio blackout of stations in the British Columbia coastal defense area, was ordered last night by the western air command of the Royal Canadian air force. It said the measure was precautionary only.

The defense area extends westward from the summit of the Cascade range and north from the United States boundary to a point above Prince Rupert in mid-northern coastal British Columbia.

Stimson Says Japs Will Attack Again
WASHINGTON, June 4.—Secretary Stimson predicted today that yesterday's Japanese air attacks on the Dutch Harbor naval base in Alaska were "not the only and last raids" to be expected on American territory.

The war department chief told his press conference, "I reminded you last week that raids were coming and I caution you now this is not the only and last raids."

Jap Radio Silent On Dutch Harbor Attack
NEW YORK, June 4.—Radio listeners who monitor Tokyo broadcasts around the clock reported today that the Tokyo radio still was silent on Japanese air raids on the United States base on Dutch Harbor nearly 24 hours after the first attack, was made.

U. S. INDICTS SIX EXPLOSIVES MAKERS

DuPont and 5 Others Named in Bills.

By The Associated Press
PHILADELPHIA, June 4.—E. I. DuPont de Nemours and Co., five other explosive manufacturers and 10 of their officials were indicted by a federal grand jury today on charges of conspiring to obstruct the prosecution of the Sherman anti-trust act.

Also named are the Hercules Powder Co. and the Atlas Powder Co., both of Wilmington, Del.; the Auto Powder Co. of Cleveland, Illinois Powder Manufacturing Co. of St. Louis, and the King Powder Co. of Cincinnati.

The 10-page indictment contended that the effect of the alleged conspiracy was to "maintain the price of commercial explosives and blasting supplies to all classes of consumers at high, arbitrary and artificial levels."

The indictment also charged that the defendants conspired to prevent the development and production of explosives and blasting supplies produced in the nation.

New Delhi Axis Goal?

The line in capital of New Delhi, seen by some experts as the point where Japanese and German armies would like to join hands, stands equidistant from both Tokyo and Berlin—3,750 miles. But from either direction, there are plenty of detours, and plenty of United Nations fighting men.

Two Hardin County Ministers And Former Marion Pastor To Retire

Dr. B. L. George in Group To End Service in Methodist Ministry.

Dr. B. L. George of Lebanon, pastor of Epworth Methodist church from 1923 to 1929, will retire from the active ministry Monday, officials of the Ohio Methodist conference announced today, according to an Associated Press report from Springfield, where the annual conference sessions opened.

Dr. George came to Marion as the successor of Dr. Jesse Smith and during his pastorate improvements were made on the church at a cost of $34,000.

He left Marion in 1929 when he was appointed superintendent of the Hill-country district, which he served until 1935 when he was sent to China as a pastor. He was in China 12 years, and then was assigned to the Lebanon church.

Dr. George began his ministry in 1920 in Dexter City in the East Ohio conference. In 1901 he went to school in the east, returning to the Cumberland, O., church in the North East Ohio conference. From 1918 to 1923 he was superintendent of the Canton district in the North East Ohio conference.

He is one of five preachers who will retire Monday. The group includes Dr. D. E. Moffett of Roundhead in Hardin county and Dr. W. W. Motter of Ada.

Ohio's Methodist churches plan to establish a million dollar pension fund for retired ministers and their families, according to the report from Springfield. The Ohio conference yesterday approved plans for an immediate campaign to raise the money through contributions of pastors and congregations. J. Boyd Davis, Columbus insurance man, was named to head the drive.

Dr. Lester Roush of Columbus, conference secretary, said the campaign would last several years and that each church would be asked to contribute an amount equal to the yearly salary of its pastor, except in a few instances.

Lady, Save That Jar!

Wide World Features
It's all right now, Mrs. Housewife.
Those new glass coffee jars can be used for home canning, after all. You probably have examined them already, and found to your disgust that the opening is too small for a standard size fruit jar lid.

Use glass coffee jar for canning.

Well, you can now buy a special lid, at the same store where you buy your coffee, or peanut butter, or salad dressing. It's called the "thrifty lid" and has the government's blessing because it makes possible re-use of the new glass containers which are replacing tin. Here's how you use it:

- 1—Read directions on inside of original lid.
- 2—Screw jar, fill with whatever you are canning, and press down the "thrifty lid."
- 3—Screw the original lid on top of this, after removing the composition ring inside it.
- 4—When cool, remove top lid. Your fruit is sealed for the duration.

MARIONITE LISTED BY DRAFT OFFICIALS

Fails To Return Questionnaire. Board Reports.

Thomas Warren Hogue, whose last Marion address was given as North Main street, has been reported as delinquent by Marion Draft Board No. 1. Hogue, who registered in the February registration, has failed to return his questionnaire, draft board officials said.

The last address draft board officials received from Hogue was a Richmond, Ind., hotel. They were told this was his address March 14.

However, Hogue was reported working at a North Main street shop for about two weeks preceding Easter. His employer was told mail could reach Hogue at a Cleveland address. But when addressed to him there has been returned unclaimed, officials said. He is described as being about five feet, nine inches tall, weighing 140 pounds, light-complexioned, with blue eyes. Officials said he would be reported to the district attorney as a draft delinquent.

Just How Much Coffee and Tea We May Drink Depends on War's Length

By ALEXANDER R. GEORGE
Wide World Feature Writer

WASHINGTON — Less coffee and more tea will be taken into the United States in the future, according to a report by the War Relocation Authority.

Whether the war will last a year or a decade, the report says, the United States will need to produce more tea and less coffee.

On the bright side for coffee is the fact that substantial reduction of our customary supplies can be made without raising a great hardship to drinkers of the No. 1 breakfast beverage.

coffee in a year. Experts roughly estimate the number of regular coffee drinkers in the country (those who drink at least one cup daily) at 40,000,000. That would be 21 pounds per person annually, or 735 cups at 35 cups to the pound. It's a little more than two cups per drinker per day.

On that basis, the 25 per cent curtailment leaves one coffee drinker a little more than one and a half cups a day. For many, 40 cups to the pound (which many do) would have one and seven-eighths cups a day. Even a 50 per cent cut on the 35 cups to the pound ratio would allow him one mug daily.

Tea Lovers May Be Hit
The long-range outlook for tea, almost all of which comes from the Japanese war zone, is distinctly on the dark side. Prior to the curtailment order, the industry estimated there was enough tea in this country to meet demands until next November. With sales cut 50 per cent, it is figured that stock can be sustained out well into the spring of 1943.

Coffee A Critical Material
Coffee has the distinction of being the only imported food product listed by defense authorities as a critical material. The lack of which would create serious hardships. Many also rate tea highly as a pick-up drink. The national consumption of tea in recent years has been about 32,000,000 pounds annually, or seven-tenths of a pound per capita. Most promising substitute for oriental tea is the "mocha" tea, a product of the east, from the mountainous regions of South America. Brazil is the largest producer.

Chicago Cubs Thankful Nobody Bought Bill Lee

Wide World Features

CHICAGO—All those guys who said Bill Lee, the Cub's veteran pitcher, was washed up have been caught blushing in the side of the right hander has turned while stepping along in one of the pitcher comebacks of the season.

Bill Lee... thinks maybe he's seeing better.

NOT SO EXTRAVAGANT

By The Associated Press
CHICAGO, N. Y.—Old rules provided that when a team was given a chance to find it before a ball could be brought into play.

CLOSE CALL

NEW YORK—Once in a life-time, the Chicago Cubs have a pitcher who's a real pitcher, born in Guadalajara, Mexico, that's true. Namely, that's time he has two out in the eighth and a no-hit game right in front of him, there's won't be a record of what happened on June 11, 1930.

Pitching for Los Angeles, he pitched Marvin Gudat of Oakland

He registered his fifth win the other day in a game with the Phils, the Cubs' second opponent on an extended eastern swing.

But he can't account for his winning spurt. He says he's pitching, mechanically, the same as always, flipping up his right leg as usual in his big windup.

Might Be His Glasses

It might be a pair of spectacles that's doing the trick. "Maybe I'm seeing better," he grinned before leaving, "and maybe that's why my control is improving."

He figured strongly in the Cubs' pennant drives of 1935 and 1936, winning 20 and 22 games. In 1935 he collected 18. Then began the sensational slump—nine victories in 1940, eight in 1941.

Last December the Cubs hung the sale tag on him. Nibbles came from the Pittsburgh Pirates, St. Louis Browns, Cincinnati, Detroit and Cleveland. A glance at the price—$25,000—and they dropped out.

A professional ball player since 1929, Lee is getting a lot of encouragement from his early season record.

Usually Starts Late

"I've never been much of a spring pitcher," he insists. "Back in 1933 when I had my best year I was belted from the box in my first six starts and didn't win a game until about this time of the season. I'm feeling better now than I ever did and with a few breaks I think I can work back to the 20-game bracket."

Lee's biggest goal is to shut out the Cardinals, the only club he has failed to blank since coming to the majors. He pitched nine shutouts in 1936—four in a row to tie a league record.

With the expansion of night baseball, Lee also hopes to work his first game under the lights, explaining that he never was given a chance because speed-ball pitchers were preferred.

For what he hoped would be the last out of the ball game, Marvin plunked a Texas leaguer safe in center and the Hall of Fame door slammed in Flores' face.

Nutrition

SOME MONTHS ago I read of the concentrated ration which the Army is now giving to its soldiers in the field. The concentration of nutrients in one of the extreme is setting up a military ration which is being fed to our troops in the field. It is a very interesting story, and it is one that we should all know about. It is the story of how we can get the most out of our food.

At the time of the Civil War the Quartermaster Corps was responsible for the feeding of the army. It was a very difficult job, and it was one that required a great deal of skill and knowledge. The Quartermaster Corps was responsible for the feeding of the army, and it was one that required a great deal of skill and knowledge.

It has not been possible since the previous years, to construct such a ration scientifically because it was only then that we realized the only important part of the ration is the vitamins. It is the vitamins which make up the difference between a ration which is good and one which is bad.

Now, however, with our knowledge of synthetic chemistry we can make synthetic vitamins and add them to processed food so that it takes on the qualities of natural food. I am informed that these concentrated rations are now perfected and available for combat troops.

The concentrated army ration is made in two forms, one in a small package about 2 1/2 x 3 inches, and the other in a larger package about 4 x 5 inches. The small package is called the "K" ration, and the larger package is called the "C" ration. The "K" ration is a lump of food made up of chocolate, sugar, flour, milk, vanilla and vitamin B1 concentrate. It can be crumbled up and dissolved in water and furnishes about 1800 calories.

The use of dried foods is a new development which has been made possible by technical advances and since it is probable that the United States will have to feed the world for the next 50 years and we cannot afford to transport water, you may get into the habit of buying your soup by the yard.

There are two other forms of United States Army Field Rations—K and C—both of them somewhat more elaborate and having a higher caloric content and acting more like food than ration D. Ration K is divided into breakfast, dinner and supper units and has pork, graham crackers, coffee, sugar, molasses, milk, dry cereal, etc. for quick energy and also chewing gum.

A great deal of ingenuity has gone into the making of these rations such as, for instance, the production of butter that will not melt at body temperature. So far as I can see, they are entirely scientific and contain a full ration of food. The only fault that might be found with them is that they possibly are not as filling as regular food, but for a three- or four-day stretch this is not seriously inconvenient.

Made: Tells Jack of Meredith's Long Devotion and How Katharine's Visit to Hospital Saved His Life

POTENTIALLY I was turning the heads in the crowd. My old dress, for my brother-in-law and his wife to have a flood of tears upon me, but the tears were not for me. They were for Katharine, who had been so long in the hospital, and I was so glad to see her.

I had slipped upon him the day after the accident. I had slipped upon him the day after the accident. I had slipped upon him the day after the accident. I had slipped upon him the day after the accident. I had slipped upon him the day after the accident.

Galk Jack an Idiot
"You are right," he said heavily. "I have no place in Katharine's life. I must go out of it, and give her the chance of happiness with Meredith."

"You absurd idea!" I stormed. "You have enough to do as it is. Keep my voice muted, and you please bring up any reserve of common sense you may have hidden within you and listen while I explain this thing to you."

"In the first place," I went on, "I was not talking about Katharine's emotions, but those of Meredith. He loves her; yes, and could help it. But Katharine does not love him, although she likes him, and admires him tremendously, as I do. She loves only you. Why God knows, I don't know. But she loves you."

"You're sure of that — what you just said — that Katharine loves me?" he stammered.
"Nobly Perjures Himself."

It was too late to do anything but perjure myself, although I told myself in exultation that I really did not know Katharine's heart.

"Yes, I'm sure," I answered shortly.
"Then," he rose and stretched his arms. "I am my own man again. And if I live to get out of this last mess, when sometimes I doubt, I'm going to try to make up to her for all she's suffered. Don't tell me anything more."

"But I must tell you one thing more," I said, "and ask you one more question. You must know — and then you need never think of it again — that the story Ruth Hayes told about Katharine going to the hospital, where he lay in delirium calling for her, and saving his life by her arrival was true."

"Ha, had been refusing to take No. 10, and from Katharine's back, and then he crashed on an apparatus and was taken to a hospital. It was given out that he was dying. The doctors said there was a slender chance for his life if they could find the person for whom he constantly called in his delirium. 'Katharine! Katharine!' I got hold of Katharine in the hospital."

Saved Meredith's Life
"I had urged her to make the trip, for I knew her conscience would never let her rest if she didn't. And I was with her every time she was in his room, helping to care for him."

"She brought him back to life, and when he realized what she had done for him, told me he knew how much she loved you, and that she had come only out of pity, and he insisted upon her going away. Even though he was still very weak, because he wasn't used to doing things which would make you angry."

"But he had me, too, that he wouldn't ever give up the idea of seeing me again, unless you would get on and make me happy again. Then he said, he would be resigned to his own loss, if only you could be happy."

"I begged and Jack looked at me. His entire address in his eyes, but no vestige of anger or bitterness."

"I am afraid the would be happy with him," he said. "He is a better man than I am, Gungna Dan."

The Stars Say—

For Friday, June 5

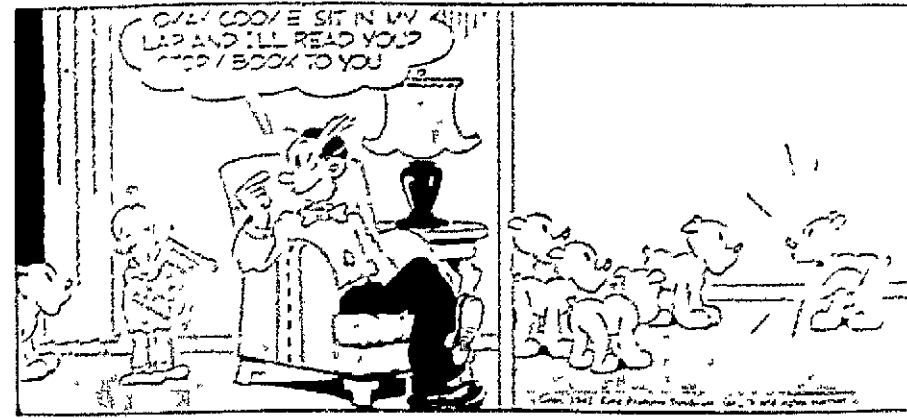

Despite some restrictive and restraining elements this should be a day of unusual enterprise and initiative to launch fresh projects or put over new programs, for meeting obligations, financial or otherwise. All may move at high tempo toward this end, although with but little support or encouragement from those in power.

Those whose birthday it is may prepare for an unusually exciting and constructive year, with many things having a progressive spirit in new directions or new programs or propositions. These should move at a lively pace despite lack of cooperation from those in influence or high position, as well as other tenuous obstacles. There will be compensation for this from friendly female relatives or those of closer ties.

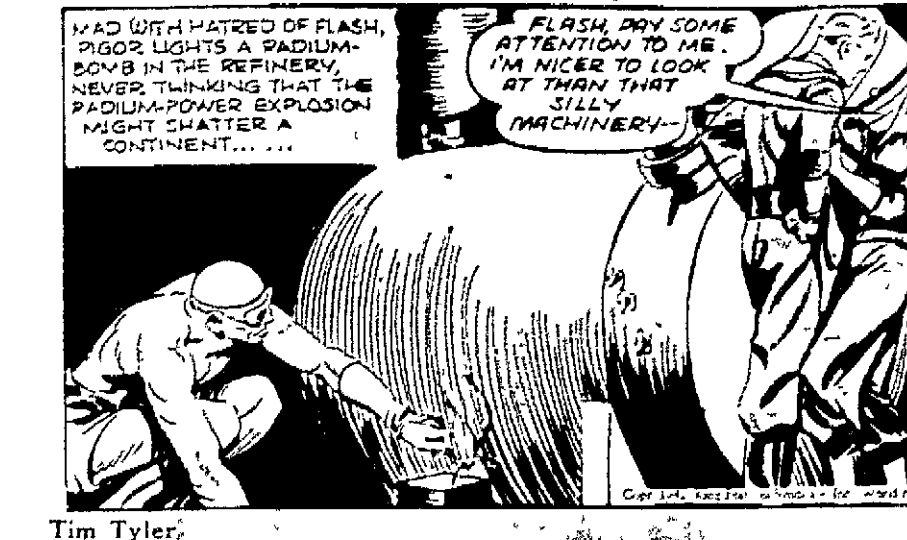

A child born on this day should be possessed of great productive capacity and versatility of a practical and constructive quality.
